A. Instructions contained in the dispatches

Listening to the Imperative: Work of a Secretary of State and a Diplomat

B. Description of conflict and terms used to describe the conflict

As you carefully read and listen to the diplomatic dispatches, record ideas here. Be ready for further investigation.

That actions contained in the dispatches	Description of connect and terms used to describe the connect
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative
C. Threats made to British Government if demands were not met	D. Diplomatic Action taken to ensure that the British understood the imperative